

Alborent Rama
Advisor to the Minister of Economic Development, Tourism and Entrepreneurship Albania

Mr. Alborent Rama is since 2016 serving as Advisor to the Minister of Economic Development, Tourism and Entrepreneurship. Prior to that, Mr. Rama has worked at the Albanian National Tourism Agency covering positions as Head of Marketing and later Director of Marketing and Image Department. He has been involved in preparing and organizing Albania's participation in the main international tourism fairs, such as ITB Berlin, WTM London, COTTM Beijing, among others. Mr. Rama has extensively contributed to the organization of the First Mediterranean Tourism Fair that took place in Tirana recently (8-9 April, 2017).

Additionally, he has a considerable experience in the media and election processes. Mr. Rama has participated in several election observation missions as a long term observer in electoral process in Kyrgyzstan, Ukraine and Kosovo, as well as worked for several radios and newspapers in Albania.