

Peter Tarlow
President and Founder Tourism & More

Dr. Peter E. Tarlow is a world-renowned speaker and expert specializing in the impact of crime and terrorism on the tourism industry, event and tourism risk management, and economic development. Since 1990, Tarlow has been teaching courses on tourism, crime & terrorism to police forces and security and tourism professionals throughout the world.

Tarlow earned his Ph.D. in sociology from Texas A&M University. He also holds degrees in history, in Spanish and Hebrew literatures, and in psychotherapy.

In 1996, Tarlow became Hoover Dam's consultant for tourism development and security. In 1998, he was asked to develop a tourism security program for all Bureau of Reclamation properties and visitor centers, which he did until 2012. In 1999, the U.S. Customs service asked him to work with its agents in the area of customer service, cultural awareness, and custom's impact on the tourism and visitor industry.

In 2000, due to interagency cooperation on the part of the Bureau of Reclamation, Tarlow helped to prepare security and FBI agents for the Salt Lake City 2002 Winter Olympic Games. He also lectured for the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games. He is currently working with police departments of the state of Rio de Janeiro for the 2014 World Cup Games and 2016 Olympic games.

Tarlow has worked extensively for U.S. government agencies: U.S. National Park Service for iconic security of its multiple tourism sites (the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building in New York, and Independence Hall in Philadelphia); the Department of the Interior; the Department of Justice (Bureau of Prisons and Office of U.S. Attorneys-General); the Department of Homeland Security; and the F.B.I. He has also worked The Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and the United Nation's WTO (World Tourism Organization), the CDC (Center for Disease Control), and the Panama Canal Authority. He has taught members of the U.S. Supreme Court police, and the Smithsonian Museum's police, and police forces in Aruba, Bolivia, Brazil, Curaçao, Colombia, Mexico and Trinidad & Tobago.
