

Ulla Autenrieth earned her PhD as part of the ProDoc intermedial aesthetics programme Play – Ritual – Performance and in the context of the SNSF project «Photos of young people on the Net» at the University of Basel. In 2011 she was a visiting researcher at the Center for New Media Studies at the University of California, Berkeley. Since 2012 she has been an academic assistant at the Institute for Media Studies at the University of Basel and was in charge of the SNSF project «Family photos in the social Web» (www.netzbilder.net).

Since October 2017 she has been responsible for the operational management of the SNSF project «Service public: Public acceptance and future opportunities» (applicant: Prof. Matthias Künzler) at the HTW Chur (www.zukunftservicepublic.ch).

Her research focuses on the areas of visual communication in networked environments, exploitation of online media and media competency, and the effects of mediatization processes and changing usages on media systems.
